The company faces a possibility of having to close down.

Warren village had a disastrous fire its influence all over the state, and, that Tuesday, when the houses of Mrs. Emma Moore and Mrs. Mary Pierce were burned to the ground. Very little was saved from Mrs. Moore's house, but most of from Mrs. Moore's house, but most of Mrs. Pierce's household goods were saved.

Don't Be Miserable! Mrs. Pierce was in Montpelier for the day and did not know of the fire until A "Simple Cold" puts one out of business ing them to Woodstock. The next day they had escaped to the woods. It is a question whether it will not be necessary to winter the animals in the woods like moose as it is feared it will be impossible to herd them into barns.
